

GREAT CONCOURSE GATHERS TO WELCOME THE RETURNING VETERANS TO EDMONTON

Scene Memorable One In Warmth Of Greeting—Party Of Twenty-Five Received—Station And Platform Packed Right Up To Tracks—So Great The Press One Of The Soldiers Painted—Entertained At Veterans' Club.

Twenty-five veterans, by far the largest number of returned soldiers who have so far arrived in a body, came in on the evening train from the south Saturday night and were given a popular reception which made all previous efforts of the kind look tame in comparison. It was an enthusiastic welcome home that the boys received and the scene will ever be a memorable one, no matter what the future may hold in store in the way of home coming.

When the train steamed in it was literally swallowed up in a concourse of eager, excited humanity. The station and platform at the C. P. R. depot were packed right up to the tracks and the engineer had to run his train at a snail's pace between the living walls. So dense was the crowd in fact that the reception committee from the Great War Veterans' club and the returned men themselves had to literally fight a way to where the automobiles were parked to receive them. In future some way must be devised of giving the men a clear passage from the train through the station.

An affecting incident occurred when Pte. A. Glicker, one of the returned men, who has far from recovered from the illness which disabled him, was so overcome with the joy of getting home and the warmth of the reception accorded him and his comrades that he fainted. Lieut. Herbert, of the 49th, picked up the unconscious man bodily and carried him to an automobile, which whisked him over to the Strathcona military hospital at top speed. It is reported that the man is none the worse for his experience.

Pte. Glicker's home is in Boleyn, Manitoba, where, previous to enlisting in the 1st battalion at Edmonton, he was a farmer. He subsequently was transferred to the 2nd battalion. The other men who came in on Saturday were:

Pte. J. Hoogland, 11239 72nd street, West overpass with the 89th Mounted Rifles and transferred to the machine gunners. Was a painter by trade before enlisting.

Pte. L. McLachlan, Castor, hardware clerk, 51st battalion, transferred to 48th.

Pte. Daniel Kerr, 1123 107th avenue, painter, 56th battalion.

Pte. Daniel E. Jones, Edmonton, carpenter, 51st and 48th battalions.

Pte. J. Ross, Forest Heights, Edmonton, government telephones, 51st battalion, transferred to mechanical transport.

Pte. W. Clarkson, Mountain Park, coal miner, 45th to 43rd battalion.

Pte. E. W. Ensign, Red Deer, farmer, 187th to 21st.

Pte. S. J. Zachowski, 9623 108th avenue, salesman with Scott & Lake, 206th battalion.

Pte. J. C. Elliott, Millerville, near Westlock, Alta., farmer, 51st to 7th battalion.

Pte. S. J. Allbut, Whyte block, Whyte avenue, Edmonton, South insurance broker, 9th to 4th battalion.

Pte. W. E. Cronk, 11826 95th st., barber, 66th to 31st battalion.

Pte. Geo. Lissinger, 10613 130th avenue, employee of Swift-Canadian Co., wounded at Courcellette, 66th to 31st battalion.

Pte. E. H. Dennis, Walworth, farmer, 151st to 50th battalion.

Pte. D. A. Elliott, Kennedy street, Edmonton, printer, employee of Edeale Press, 66th-55th battalions.

Pte. S. J. Palmer, 11548 95th street, student, Victoria high school, one of the original 49th battalion men.

Pte. J. E. Smith, 1132 95th street, salesman, 51st-7th battalions.

Pte. Joyce, Briggsville, Wisconsin, Canadian Postal Corps. Was a railway mail clerk between Edmonton and Saskatoon before enlisting.

Pte. W. M. Oakley, Athabasca, farmer, 51st-107th battalions.

Pte. Charles Fraser, 7330 Jasper avenue, east, farmer, 138th-17th battalions.

Pte. A. J. Barker, Clyde, farmer, 51st-4th battalions.

Pte. J. P. Cowill, Abilene, farmer, 184th-9th battalions.

Pte. T. Watson, Edmonton, bricklayer, left with draft of 23rd battalion, transferred to Royal Horse Artillery.

Pte. W. H. Hutchinson, 1208 Darnoch street, Virginia Park, painter, 18th-4th battalions.

Pte. A. Sinclair, 10215 96th street, painting contractor. Another original 49th battalion man.

Large as the party was, there were enough automobiles volunteered to accommodate them all, together with their relations, who had gathered to greet them. The returned men were taken in triumph, escorted by the band, to the club rooms of the Great War Veterans' association, where refreshments were served. A few stayed the night. Most of them went to their homes.

general epidemic of hog cholera would mean tremendous financial loss to the whole province.

The Swine Breeders' Association, at their spring meeting, denounced in glowing terms the practice of feeding city garbage to hogs, thus endangering the high-class result of years of careful selection of breeding stock, which has caused Alberta to have one of the most famous herds in Canada.

No matter whether garbage is cooked or uncooked, it was condemned as a hog feed and is extremely dangerous with pork prices at the top notch, it is considered that swine raisers have no excuse for feeding garbage for there was enough profit in pork to pay for safe feed, even if grain prices are also high.

MUST STAND TRIAL FOR LOVETT MURDER

Knut Erickson, of Lovett, Alta., was committed for trial on Thursday by Justice of the Peace Laycock, at Lovett, on a charge of murdering Charles Farquarson on July 4th. The prisoner will be brought to Edmonton.

According to information received in Edmonton on Saturday, Erickson is alleged to have come into the town in an intoxicated condition. Both the men were in the employ of the Dominion Government.

During the months of July and August as in previous years the city mail carriers will have a Saturday half holiday. As a consequence there will be no Saturday afternoon mail delivery except in districts where there is only a delivery a day.

WIMY RIDGE HERO HOME FROM FRONT

Lieut. Stewart McCulloch Invalidated Through Wounds Received April 9th.

Lieut. Stewart McCulloch, who distinguished himself as signally Easter Sunday by the capture of a number of Germans at Vimy Ridge, has been a guest at the Macdonald hotel for the past few days, having been invalided home in consequence of wounds received on April 9th.

Lieut. McCulloch joined the 151st battalion in January, 1916. He and Lieut. C. Lyall obtained their commissions at the same time and immediately engaged in recruiting campaigns in the Strome district where they then resided, both having very large property interests in that neighborhood. Their efforts in this direction were highly successful, and they secured seventy recruits in the town and district and a correspondingly large number from the surrounding towns.

After concluding their recruiting campaign they underwent a course of instruction in Edmonton and subsequently at Sarcee. They both proceeded overseas on September 25th and remained at Shorncliffe till November, when they were sent to France. Lieut. McCulloch was then transferred to the 56th battalion and Lieut. Lyall to the 49th, with which unit he has been serving at the front ever since, fortunately escaping injury so far.

Wounded Second Time

Lieut. McCulloch was wounded in the leg on 3rd of February and was in hospital only nine days. He was again wounded on 12th of April while helping to take the "Pimple," by which name this part of Vimy Ridge is known. His wounds this time were more serious, necessitating his removal to hospital at Wandsworth, London. He remained at Wandsworth from May 25th and arrived at Halifax on May 27th after a voyage of thirteen days. The journey was aboard five hundred and fifty officers and men.

Lieut. McCulloch having obtained a week in Montreal, enquired for Calgary where he reported and then proceeded to Edmonton. He is at present recovering medical treatment at a military hospital, Strathcona, where he has to report each day. He is progressing favorably and hopes to be able to return to the front in the course of a few months.

Honored by Home Town

Lieut. McCulloch, of forty-eight hours leave to visit his home in Strome last Saturday, being invited by his fellow townsmen to unveil the honor roll of the town and district which comprises 72 names. A record that reflects the greatest credit on the district.

Among the very last to bid goodbye to Lieut. McCulloch on leaving Wandsworth were Major Lewis and Capt. Pent, both of his battalion. All three were wounded on the same day.

LARGE CROWD ENJOYS PROGRAM KILITE BAND

A rare treat in a musical way was enjoyed by several thousand persons, young and old, at the East End Park Sunday afternoon, when the world-toured "Kilite Band," which is one of the principal attractions with the "World at Home Shows" on the Midway at the fair, gave a concert of popular and classical music in a most finished manner. Besides the excellent music by the band, Miss Jean Campbell, the noted soprano soloist of the band, sang several songs, which were rendered in a most delightful manner. The piper of the band played and some of the Highland laddies danced Scottish dances with vim and precision. A collection was taken for fund-raising for the band, which was sufficient being obtained to assure two concerts.

DEPUTY MINISTER RECEIVES GOVERNOR GENERAL'S MEDALS

For Pupils Scoring Highest Total Marks Of Grade 8 Examination.

The deputy minister of education has just received from Ottawa twenty-four bronze medals donated by His Excellency, the Duke of Devonshire, for distribution among the public schools of Alberta, one medal to be awarded to the pupil of each inspectorate who scores the highest total marks at the grade eight examination of the circuit. The Edmonton inspectorate each receive two medals.

This system of prizes was established by H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught two years ago and the present governor general has decided to follow the example of his distinguished predecessor in this respect and to continue the award.

The medals are struck with a bas-relief of the duke and duchess and have the inscription, "His Excellency the Duke of Devonshire, K. G., C. M. G., C. V. O., and the Duchess of Devonshire."

In about four weeks from now, when the marking of the grade eight examination papers is completed and the results tabulated, twenty-four boys and girls of the Alberta public schools will each be the proud possessor of one of these much coveted trophies.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH CONVENTION ENDS

Inspiring Meetings Held On Sunday In The Norwood Boulevard Edifice.

There were two inspiring meetings held on Sunday in the Christian church, Norwood boulevard, in connection with the convention. At both services the church building was crowded to standing room only. At 10 a. m. the Rev. W. J. Clarke expounded the workings of an organized graded Sunday school.

Number of workers from other Edmonton Sunday schools were interested spectators at this meeting and expressed themselves as being well paid for their time in the instruction they received. There were 125 present. Rev. F. W. Burnham preached the morning sermon.

Sunday evening Mr. Burnham preached to the crowded audience on "Foreign Missions and Home Missions," giving the people present a glimpse into the wonderful field of church work, where, he said, the church must meet its obligations or become a bankrupt institution.

Mr. Burnham is president of one of the greatest missionary organizations of the United States and knows well of the call from the unchristian world, and dealt with his subject in a manner instructive to all present.

The ninth convention closed by passing resolutions thanking the press of Edmonton for its courteous treatment and the people of the city for their support in caring for the delegates.

On Saturday, at the forenoon, afternoon and evening sessions addresses were delivered by Rev. W. J. John-

LIVE STOCK FEATURE OF YEAR'S FAIR

Some Finest Horses And Cattle In Dominion Here For Exhibition.

When the Edmonton Exhibition opens on Monday the public will have an opportunity of seeing a magnificent collection of live stock has been brought together this year.

The primary object of the exhibition indeed might be said its only reason for being in evidence during these days (so far removed from the normal), is the encouragement of the live stock industry, and it is exceedingly glad to note that in this respect the exhibition does justify its existence.

This year, apart from dogs and poultry, there are to be something like 1,500 animals on exhibition, and this number includes some of the finest stock in the Dominion. This sort of show is not only instructive but it is also a pleasure to the eye, and any farmer or breeder, after having had interest stirred by some of the magnificent specimens of live stock to be seen, is not going to be content to own scraps.

Local Exhibitors Increase.

One of the most satisfactory features of the exhibition is the large number of local names that are to be seen in the stock entries and also to know that yearly these local exhibitors are on the increase.

Saturday was a busy day at the fair grounds. Stock was arriving all the day and being tended and got into their stalls. Buildings, buildings and tents were being fixed, machinery exhibits unpacked, and out on the track several trotters were being exercised at top speed.

Noting the entries it was to be seen that Herefords are in a big class this year. This breed is rapidly increasing in popularity as an all-around class, and including the cowards the beef side. Two famous bulls will compete in the championship classes. One is the animal belonging to E. E. Fuller, of Gravel, Sask., for which $17,000 was paid, and the other is the property of P. Collicutt, for which $11,000 was given.

Well-known exhibitors in the Show classes are Yule and Howes of Carleton Place, W. Robinson, of Vernon; A. R. Gillies of Clover Bar, etc. A new name this year is W. C. Short, of Gravel, Sask.

One of the largest classes is that for Red Polled cattle. The owners of the Jean Du Luth Farm, Inc., Duluth, Minn., who are prominent exhibitors in this class, have selected the exhibit of Guernsey cattle ever seen at the Edmonton show. Jersey cattle are in good force, J. Harper & Son, of Westlock, and Campbell and O'Brien, of Saskatchewan, having numerous entries. H. W. B. Douglas, of Edmonton, is a new exhibitor in this class.

The sheep classes are filled with entries. Shropshires particularly boasting of a large number of entries. Well-known names among the sheep exhibitors are Campbell and O'Brien, of Edmonton; W. Gilbert, of Stoney Plain; G. R. Ball, West Salisbury; H. Smith, Camrose; McCurker Bros., of Camrose; and J. A. McEwen of Brantford, Ont.; C. R. Ries, Stoney Plain.

The children will be pleased to hear that all the pony and calf and goat classes have been increased, and they will have the chance of seeing a big collection of splendid little animals.

In the heavy horse classes all the well-known breeders and exhibitors are represented. The competition in the Percheron classes is going to be particularly keen on account of the fact that the Percheron Society of America.

TAKE SAMPLES BEER IN NUMBER OF BARS

Provincial And City Detectives Execute Warrants On City Hotels.

As an advance in their campaign against the illegal traffic in liquor provincial and city detectives executed search warrants on eight or nine of the bars of the leading hotels in Edmonton on Saturday afternoon and evening. Samples of the beer being served in each case were taken, and in consequence the provincial analyst has a large quantity of beer at his disposal Monday morning.

No arrests were made, as it was impossible to have any of the liquor seized analysed that night. Detectives entered the bars and drew off a bottle or two of the liquor in the taps and quietly went their way.

Jesse Jones, a negro living at 10509 94th street, was arrested Saturday night, charged with having liquor in his possession, contrary to the liquor act. Inspector Shaw, in company with some of his men, made a search of the prisoner's room, and, according to the police, found liquor.

Personal

Geo. A. Walton, general passenger agent of the C.P.R. at Winnipeg, H. M. Tait, assistant general agent of C. P. R., steamship lines, of Calgary, and H. Dawson, district passenger agent C.P.R., also of Calgary, were in Edmonton on Friday.

The Daily Poem

REMEMBRANCE.

When you are old and grey and full of sleep,
And nodding by the fire, take down
this book,
And slowly read, and dream of the good old days
Your eyes had once, and of their shadows deep.

How many loved your moments of glad grace,
And loved your beauty with love false or true,
But one man loved the pilgrim soul in you,
And loved the sorrows of your changing face.

And bending down beside the glowing bars,
Murmur a little sadly how love fled,
And paced among the mountains overhead.

The Exhibition Association regrets that the Child Welfare Exhibit arranged for some time ago, will not be available this year. The demands of war having interfered with shipment as explained in the following telegram received from Springfield, Ohio, by the management of the exhibition:

No shipment by express out of Springfield for a week. It would be useless to start to ship at this date. (Signed) Child Welfare Exhibit. Fair visitors, however, will find plenty to interest them in other departments, though it is naturally regretted that this splendid exhibit is not available.

At the Exhibition for the whole week the Red Cross Society will have a very beautiful and enjoyable dinner party at the Palliser last evening in honor of Mrs. Stoney and Miss Halliday, the winners of the Red Cross flight tickets. Covers were laid for eight and carriage bouquets of fragrant roses were provided for the guests. Miss Stinson has proven one of the greatest drawing cards at the Exhibition for the last two years and her troubles with her planes this year have proven not only a source of worry to herself and the management, but one of disappointment to the spectators generally. The repairing of the engine for the two-seated aeroplane has, unfortunately, been delayed by the arrival of repairs from Chicago and the flight in which the Red Cross ticket-holders were to have participated has had to be withdrawn for the present. Miss Stinson leaves tonight for Edmonton to attend the Exhibition here, and the conditions in the Exhibition grounds of that city are not as favorable for flying as the local ones, the grounds will be surveyed on the date specified and the Red Cross has made arrangements to send the winners to Edmonton to have their flight there should the situation prove acceptable to the authorities. The accident to the machinery has proven a disappointment to the general public as well as to those who were interested enough to participate in the Red Cross competitions, and for the present further plans to carry out the provisions of the competition will remain in abeyance until a decision can be had from Miss Stinson's arrival in Edmonton. The young aviator, who has only recently returned from a twelve months' flying trip in China and Japan, has all sorts of interesting things to tell of her impressions and experiences in the Orient. She also took part in the big Red Cross campaign in the United States. Carrying the first big contribution from the city of Chicago, her home, she flew over the city and over the distance of 100 miles in eleven hours. Miss Stinson will spend a few days in the city next week on her return from Edmonton. The guests last evening included Mrs. Stoney, Miss Halliday, Mrs. J. B. Davidson, Miss Jean Grant, Mrs. C. W. Waagen and Miss MacGartney. —Calgary Alberta.

Mothers who find it necessary to take their children along when they visit the exhibition will learn with delight that the Exhibition Association has this year given special thought to the needs of mothers. This thought has materialized in the form of a creche where the little folks may be left in competent care, while mothers see the sights. A large tent is being put up and will contain cots, chairs, etc., where by paying a small fee mothers may leave their children for an hour or as long as they desire. The tent will be in charge of the Victorian Order of Nurses, and the proceeds will be devoted to their child welfare work through the city, it being necessary for the Victorian Order to make a special effort to finance their special Baby Nursery for the year. Mrs. J. R. Benson and Mrs. Knell are the committee in charge. The creche will be open to day. The hospital tent, a necessary adjunct to the exhibition, will be found in its usual place. Dr. Williams, the physician in charge, and Miss Campbell, the public health nurse, the nurse. Still another haven for the weary will be found in the building where the arts displays are exhibited. The public health nurse, arranged in one corner of the building. The art exhibits and displays will be found in the former dog building, to the north of the Manufacturers' building. This structure has been thoroughly renovated until it scarcely recognizes itself, and will afford much better facilities for the art exhibits than those of former years.

THE WOMEN'S EXCHANGE

In accordance with requests made by a number of readers, The Bulletin has decided to run the questions and answers the same days in this department instead of as at present giving the answers on the day following the questions. As in the past all inquiries addressed to this department of the Bulletin will be given the most careful attention.

TODAY'S INQUIRIES.

What is a good recipe for anchovy butter to use in sandwiches?
Beat the anchovies to a paste, then pass them through a sieve, add twice their quantity of butter and cayenne pepper or paprika, and other spices to suit.

How do you make caramel for coloring sugar?
Put two tablespoonfuls sugar into a small sauce pan and let it melt, then bubble over the fire. When it is brown pour in two tablespoonfuls boiling water and stir until the sugar is dissolved. A very small quantity will color sufficiently.

Is there any way of haking honey at home out of sugar?
This recipe is a good one if the directions are carefully followed: Ten parts sugar, three parts raw water; bring to a boil over a slow fire and let boil fifteen minutes, skimming all.

Canned Strawberries that Retain Color.
To the Editor of Woman's Page:
Dear Madam—Please give me directions for canning strawberries so they will keep their color as much as possible, and oblige.

Stone the cherries, remove the hard centre and the outside of the pineapple and cut into slices. Let cook in boiling water until tender. For each pound of fruit add one cup of sugar and one-quarter pound of sugar and one cup of water in which the fruit was cooked to the soft-boiled stage, then remove from fire and pour it over the fruit. The syrup should cover it entirely. Return to the fire and let boil once, then set aside until next day. Drain on a sieve. Repeat this process.

Others. Then the whole dark tale was unfolded and all were condemned to torture and death.

ON DIT
That an Irish woman doctor has been posted "to the Irish command for duty forthwith."

That flesh colored collars take off the age and are infinitely more becoming than white except to very dark women.

That marriage is the miracle that changes the act of taking a woman to the theatre from a privilege into a favor.

That the newest cape coats are of short sport coat length, stopping well above the knees, with coat fronts and collars of gray or buff over a dark blue or black cape, while beige models have white fronts and collars.

That plants of the knife-killed order have entirely captured woman's heart, and not all the subtlest drapery can compete with their popularity.

That a mother always has an excuse for her child's failure to do anything for her comfort—either he is too young or his wife won't let him.

NOTICE TO SICK WOMEN
Positive Proof That Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Relieves Suffering.

Bridgeton, N. J. "I cannot speak too highly of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for inflammation and other weaknesses. I was very irregular and would have terrible pains so that I could hardly take a step. Sometimes I would be so miserable that I could not sweep a room. I doctored part of the time but felt no change. I later took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt a change for the better. I took it until I was in good healthy condition. I recommend the Pinkham remedies to all women as I have used them with such good results." —Mrs. M. L. FORD, T. C. W. S. 322 Harmony St., Penn's Grove, N. J.

Such testimony should be accepted by all women as convincing evidence of the excellence of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a remedy for the distressing ills of women such as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, backache, pelvic pain, nervousness and kindred ailments.

Spectacular Mimic Warfare, Side Shows, Soldiers' Display

This week will see the greatest effort yet launched by any organization in connection with our invasion. The turned horses. For the past week Capt. Olive Willis and his squadron of workers have been busy turning the exhibition grounds into a theatre of war. All the trenches, machine gun emplacements, flying traverses and sandbags, and all the paraphernalia essential to real warfare, are ready and no effort or expense is being spared so that Edmontonians and our visitors will know something of the terrors of war without being exposed to actual danger. Barbed wire entanglements are in place in order to keep the public from the zone of danger. There will be, if the magnitude of the work permits, four big shows each day. In addition there will be a midway of side shows, including entertainment by the best talent in fortune-telling, chamber of horrors, and the most wonderful of fakes ever performed. The "zone of danger" will be a real one. Following is the order of the shows in the midway: Fakes, including "Lucy, the Jane with eyes all over her body," "the largest and smallest things in the world," "the largest gress ever held in captivity" (owing to the congestion of the traffic at the coast the "gress" has not arrived, but it sure to be shown on Tuesday. In tent No. 2 is a sparkling, effervescent, heterogeneous miscellany, which will be managed by Tom Hughes, whose efforts by Tom Hughes, whose efforts in this connection will be rewarded with packed houses each time. No. 3 is known as the "Jail" tent, in charge of Miss Clara May Bell, who will give a homelike smile with each conical purchase. Fortune telling will be in tent No. 4, and is organized by Miss Edna Mooney, Mrs. Timothy and Mrs. Bell will be on duty. No. 5, tent No. 6 will be the "chamber of horrors," commanded by Tom Dalkin. It is distinctly understood that the "gress" will not allow children to go through the "horror chamber" unless with parents. Tents 7 and 8 will contain drinks, candies and books. Other attractions and heaps of fun.

Don't Spoil Your Hair By Washing It

When you wash your hair, be careful too much soap. Don't use prepared shampoo or anything else that contains too much alkali, for this is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mulsified coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few months will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly

GOOD YEAR
TUBES
MADE IN CANADA

Good Tubes Increase the Mileage of Tires

Good tubes—Goodyear Tubes—will get many extra miles from tires.

Because a poor tube, through slow leaks, causes under-inflation, the commonest enemy of tires.

Goodyear Laminated Tubes overcome this. Their exclusive method of manufacture insures air-tightness to the greatest possible degree.

For we take the highest quality rubber and roll it thin to transparency—so we can detect all flaws, sand holes, air bubbles. The inspected, perfect sheets are then built up, layer on layer, into a perfect, inseparable whole. This is the only right way to make tubes.

And we even vulcanize the valve patch, instead of merely sticking it on.

It is very much worth while, for the sake of your casings, and for longer tube service, to say "Goodyears" when you buy tubes.

The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. of Canada, Limited

Goodyear Tubes, along with Good-year Tires and Tire-Saver Accessories, are easy to get from Good-year Service Station Dealers everywhere.

The Hudson's Bay Company

All Eyes Will Be On The "Bay" Monday When The Balloon Goes Up at 11 a.m. and 3 p.m.

EVERY DAY AT 11 A.M. AND 3 P.M. DURING EXHIBITION WEEK
A HUGE AIRSHIP WILL ASCEND FROM THE TOP OF THE HUDSON'S BAY STORE.

It will be an attraction well worth coming down town to see, and, to make it worth your while, we will attach to each airship that goes up, an order for $5.00 worth of goods at this store to the person who secures same from the dummy aeronaut. Order will be securely fastened in tin box to the dummy. Bring it to the store and choose your goods to the value of five dollars. Twice daily an airship will ascend and each ascent means five dollars to some person. Be at The "Bay" each day at 11 and 3 o'clock during Fair Week. Watch where the dummy drops from the sky.

Obstinacy, that quality for which mules are noted, is not lacking in the mules which will run in the mule Derby, a unique event arranged for the entertainment of Edmonton visitors, and a feature of every afternoon and evening program of the six days' fair. The mules are professionals, the drivers will be amateurs. Representatives from different popular organizations, such as the board of trade, the Automobile Club and the Rotary Club will be invited to drive. Local "muleteers," however, will have to look to their laurels, since they will have a competitor Katherine Blinson, aviator, who will descend from the clouds for a time and demonstrate her skill in handling the ribbons.

Sporting Facts and Fancies

The Apaches (with apologies to W. O. McGeehan) have one of the finest first basemen in the game in Stuffy McInnes. Stuffy seems to have decided that this is going to be his best year and he's playing accordingly.

The Tigers are crawling up (Tigers crawl, don't they?) and before you know it there's going to be a big surprise in the American league camp. Hughie Jennings and his outfit got a very bad start this season and have been bucking the tide constantly. They are making a fine fight for top position, despite odds that have been against them. One of these days they'll get there, too.

Consider the second sack and its guardian. Your eye will first light upon one Herzog of a certain team commonly known as the Giants. You need go no further, for Herzog is the best little baseman there is, and that's all. (Any arguments?)

And while we're in the eulogizing frame of mind, there's old doctor Peckinpaugh, who also belongs in the Who's Who of the diamond. His playing is such that wherever he is scheduled to appear he draws a large and enthusiastic audience.

In contemplating the Boston Braves this year one has a hard time repressing bitter tears over the evil days that have befallen that erstwhile formidable clan. Think of them through all the years since 1913, triumphant, invincible, and look at them today. Way down in the cellar, with almost all chance for the pennant gone to smithereens. The team seems to have suffered from a gas attack. Kelly and Fitzpatrick, outfielders, aren't rated very high, the same time that Max Williams was suffocated in trying to navigate the upper rapids in Graham's barrel. His last feat was accomplished on September 1, 1902, when he again swam the rapids. After gaining a world-wide reputation through his five daring descents of America's most treacherous waterway, Graham died from the effects of a cold contracted while sitting in a draft.

Here's a good chorus for a song:
"They may be wearing 'em higher in Hawaii,
But they're coming up in Yankee Doodle land."
At the same time the above may be regarded as a high cost of living note.

A man who was known the world over as the human fish was Carlisle D. Graham, who made several daring descents of Niagara Falls. Graham first attracted attention in 1886 when he announced that on July 11 he would go through the Whirlpool Rapids. Speculation was rife as to whether the feat could be accomplished without ending in the death of the man who undertook it. On the date set for the daring deed the banks of the Niagara were lined with interested spectators. Graham, who was a cooper, successfully carried out his plan and repeated the "stunt" three years later. A week later he went over the Horseshoe Falls in a barrel. On September 9, 1901, he swam Whirlpool Rapids at Niagara. After gaining a world-wide reputation through his five daring descents of America's most treacherous waterway, Graham died from the effects of a cold contracted while sitting in a draft.

Today in Pugilistic Annals.
1859—Charley Lynch, American featherweight champion, defeated Sam Fingles, the English champion, in forty-three rounds at Kenilworth Marshes, England. In a previous battle the Englishman had won on a foul after ninety-five rounds of fighting. In 1862 Lynch was defeated in 64 rounds by George Holden, an Englishman, who thus became the world's first featherweight champion under London prize ring rules.

1866—"Brooklyn Jimmy" Carroll, middleweight boxer, was born at Staten Island, N.Y. Carroll might have become champion of his division, had not the close friendship existing between Jack Dempsey and himself prevented a match between the pair.

1885—Tommy Warren, first Queensberry featherweight champion, defeated Andy Hanly in Chicago.

1916—Ted Lewis, the British welterweight, defeated Kid Graves of Cleveland, in a ten round bout at Milwaukee.

REPEATS CAUSE SHARPPURNS IN CORN PRICES

Crop Two Weeks Late With No Stock on Hand For Buyers

Chicago, July 7.—Active buying on the part of commission houses swept the corn market upwards again today. Railroad car prices covering a large section of important producing states were to the effect that the growing crop was fully two weeks late. This fact, together with knowledge that there is virtually no stock of corn on hand here, tended to give renewed strength to the market. Opening quotations, which ranged from the same as yesterday's finish to 1 1/2c higher, with September at 1 1/2c to 1 3/4c, and December at 1 1/4c to 1 1/2c, were followed by gains all around that carried December to 1 1/2c.

Wheat sagged owing to neglect. Trading was even smaller than has been usual of late. After opening 2c lower with July at 210 and September nominal, the market descended to 200 for July. Oats were firmer in sympathy with corn. Moderate advances brought rather free offerings. Scattered demand for hard and soft wheat. Subsequently the market showed more firmness apparently influenced by the bulge in corn. The close was unsettled at 2c net lower to 2c advance, with July at 207 and September at 194.

Adventures of Uncle Wiggily

Uncle Wiggily and Tweedledum

Copyright, 1917, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

"Are you in, Uncle Wiggily?" asked a voice at the hollow stump bungalow one morning, and the rabbit gentleman looked up to see Alice from Wonderland standing on the door sill.

"Yes, of course I'm in, my dear," he answered. "Can't you see me?"

"I can't be sure of anything I see," answered the little girl with flaxen hair, "especially since I've been having so many queer adventures. I used to think I saw the Cheshire cat, when it was only his grin smiling at me. And may be now I'm only looking at your ears, or tall talk hat, and thinking it's you."

"No, I'm here all right," answered the bunny. "Is there anything I can do for you?"

"Yes," answered Alice. "I'd like you to come for a walk with me. I haven't much longer time to stay with you, and I want to have all the fun I can."

"Are you going away?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"I have very soon to go back in the book where I belong," answered Alice. "But no matter. Come now, and we'll go look for an adventure."

So Alice and Uncle Wiggily started off over the fields and through the woods, and they had not gone very far before they suddenly heard, among the trees, some voices crying:

"You did it!"

"Yes, you did; you know you did!"

"No, I didn't! I know I didn't!"

"Well, we'll have to have a battle, anyhow!"

And then came a sound as if some one was beating a carpet with a fishing pole, and voices cried:

"Oh! Oh, dear! Ouch! Oh, how it hurts!"

"My, what in the world can that be," asked Uncle Wiggily. "It sounds like an adventure all right!"

"I think it is," answered Alice. "It's probably Tweedledum and Tweedledee fighting."

"Fighting? Tweedledee and Tweedledum?" asked the surprised bunny.

"Oh, it's only in fun," laughed Alice, "and they have to do it because it's that way in the book, for if they didn't things wouldn't come out right. Yes, there they are," and she pointed off through the trees, where Uncle Wiggily saw two round, fat, little boys, dressed exactly the same, and looking so like one another that no one could tell them apart except when they were together—just like twins, you know.

"Oh, I'm so glad to see you," cried Alice to the two quiet, fat chaps. They were as round as barrels, both of them. Uncle Wiggily noticed that on the collar of one was the word DUM, while on the other was the word DEE. "Tweedle," the rest of their name, is on the back of their collars," Alice explained. "As it's the same for both, they didn't need it in front around, like tops slowly spinning, and, surely enough, on the back of the white collar of each were letters spelling TWEEDLE."

"I'm glad to see you," spoke Uncle Wiggily. "I heard you—sort of—er—well, you know," he went on, diffidently, not wishing to say he had heard the brothers quarreling.

"Oh, it's all right, we do that every day," said Tweedledee.

"And contrariwise, twice on Sunday," added Tweedledum. "We have to for the verse about us says: 'Tweedledum and Tweedledee Agreed to have a battle; For Tweedledum and Tweedledee Had spoiled his nice new rattle. 'Just then down flew a monstrous crow, As black as a tar barrel, Which frightened both the heroes so, They quite forgot their quarrel.'"

"Only we weren't really frightened," said Tweedledee. "We just made believe so, and, as the crow, and I didn't really spoil Tweedledum's nice new rattle, for here it is now," and taking his arm down from around his brother's neck he took the rattle from his pocket and shook it, making a noise like a drum.

And, just as he did that, all of a sudden, out from behind a big stump came—not a monstrous crow, but the bad old skilley-scally alligator who cried:

"Ah ha! At last I have him! Now I'll get that Uncle Wiggily Longears chap! Ah ha!" and he made a grab for the gentleman bunny.

"Oh dear!" exclaimed Alice. "Please don't hurt Uncle Wiggily!"

"Yes, I shall!" snapped the gator. "I'll bumble him and mumble him, that's what I'll do."

"Oh no, you won't!" exclaimed Tweedledum, waddling toward the alligator as Jimmie Wibblewobble, the boy duck, waddled when he walked.

"I won't what?" asked the gator.

"You won't bumble or mumble Uncle Wiggily. First you have to catch me."

"Pooh! That's easily done," snapped the alligator. "You are so fat, you can't run any more than a rubber ball."

"Will you promise to let Uncle

Wiggily alone until you catch me?" asked Tweedledum, eagerly.

"I promise," said the alligator smiling to himself, for he thought he could easily catch the fat twin, and his promise wouldn't count.

"Then here I go! Catch me!" suddenly cried Tweedledum. And with that he stretched out on the ground and began to roll down hill in the woods. And as he was fat, and round he did roll as fast as a rubber ball, and he rolled so fast (ever so much faster than if he had run) that when the alligator reached after him, as he had promised he would do, why the bad double jointed skilley-scally creature got all out of breath and couldn't bumble or mumble a strawberry, and say nothing of Uncle Wiggily. And the gator didn't catch the fat boy either.

So Tweedledum, rolling down hill that way, while the gator could do much better than walking or running, saved the bunny uncle from the alligator, and Mr. Longears was very glad, and so was Alice.

And if the knife and fork don't go to the candy store, just when supper is ready, and make the spoon holder wait for them before setting the ice cream, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and Tweedledee.

ENGINE TURNS OVER IN MOOSE JAW YARD; TRAINMEN ESCAPED

Defective Frog Blamed For Odd Accident to the C.P.R. Mogul

Moose Jaw, July 7.—When pulling into the yards at 8:15 this morning, engine No. 3076, attached to the C.P.R. train No. 304, was derailed and turned over on its side, by what is believed to have been a defective frog. Engineer Albert McCauley, of this city, and Fireman O. L. Epling, of Moose Jaw, were not injured, as the turnover was slow and deliberate and they had plenty of time to get away. No damage further than the tearing up of the platform and slight damage to the engine resulted. There were no casualties. Conductor J. W. Cameron, of Saskatoon, was in charge of the train.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., July 7.—Four persons were killed and one was injured last night when an automobile was struck by a Canadian Pacific passenger train near Blind River, Ont. The dead are: Mrs. John D. Stover, her daughter, Mary; Mrs. J. W. Brooks and her daughter, all of Blind River. The injured man is Ralph Glynn, a lumberman of Sault Ste. Marie. Glynn several years ago was a star of the Notre Dame football eleven and later at the University of Wisconsin.

FOURTEEN MEN MISSING.
London, July 7.—The Norwegian steamers Havbris, of 697 tons, and Bjerkoy, of 1,872 tons, have been sunk, a Central dispatch from Copenhagen reports. Fourteen members of the Bjerkoy's crew are missing.
